

Discovering the Adult Baby in you - the joys, the struggles, the highs and the lows – and the journey.

* NEW  The Book Club Baby

In her stunning debut novel, Madeline Wood tells a story that she wished was literally her own. She writes about five wealthy single West Coast women who discover a world they knew nothing about – adult babies.

And they discovered them in the pages of a book – The Baby of the Baskervilles.

One of the five women decides that she too wants to have a 'baby' of her own - an adult baby - and begins her search for the baby her soul craves.

Success, failure, frustration and triumph await her on the journey the author wishes was her own.

Having dated several adult babies, Madeline knows what makes them 'tick'.

The Women who write for us

It is one of those curiosities that most ABDL books are written by men. But what I have found since I wrote my own first ABDL book, that a number of women have contacted me to discuss writing their own books. So far, we have four women authors – including myself (Rosalie Bent). Evelyn Hughes, Maggie Joyce are today joined by Madeline Wood. A fifth woman – Anthea MacBride is currently completing her first novel for us as well.

Maybe you are a woman with a story to write. If so, contact me at Rosalie.bent@gmail.com

We have a special offer for subscribers only. Choose any six books and pay just $24. Depending on the size and price of the books you select, that could be a significant saving!
